SHERWOOD, MARYLAND 21665

Sherwood is a small, compact village of approximately forty houses. It is situated in the Bay Hundred peninsular on Waterhold Cove off Harris Creek to the east, and on Poplar Island Narrows to the west. There are two churches, one store and post office, and a seafood packing house at Lowes Wharf on the Bay side.

At the turn of the century there was a vegetable canning house on Waterhole Cove.

The village was probably settled in this location because there were at one time many natural springs in the area. This may be the reason for the name of the cove.
